EXAM STASH

GCSE ENGLISH – CHARACTER REVISION

MACBETH – ACT 5

WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE

GCSE ENGLISH LITERATURE

AMBITION | GUILT | POWER | DOWNFALL

As his support collapses, Macbeth moves between defiant certainty and emotional exhaustion. The prophecies fail as guarantees, but he chooses to fight rather than surrender.

THE JOURNEY: ACT 5

5.3 He clings to prophecy while admitting the emptiness of his old age.

5.5 Lady Macbeth's death prompts a bleak meditation on time and life.

5.5-7 Birnam Wood appears to move; military confidence is tested.

5.8 Macduff reveals the loophole in the prophecy; Macbeth fights and is killed.

5 KEY QUOTATIONS

1 'honor, love, obedience, troops of friends'

Speaker/Scene: Macbeth, 5.3

Method: List of absent human relationships

Analysis: He recognises what should accompany age but cannot possess it. A crown has not brought affection, belonging or an honourable legacy.

2 'I have almost forgot the taste of fears'

Speaker/Scene: Macbeth, 5.5

Method: Sensory metaphor; qualification

Analysis: Violence has made terror familiar: "Almost" complicates the boast: apparent fearlessness may be emotional damage rather than strength.

3 'Out, out, brief candle!'

Speaker/Scene: Macbeth, 5.5

Method: Exclamation; metaphor

Analysis: Life becomes a fragile light easily extinguished. The urgent repetition follows news of his wife's death and feeds the speech's despair.

4 'a tale'

Speaker/Scene: Macbeth, 5.5

Method: Extended theatrical and narrative imagery

Analysis: He imagines life as performance and a story without purpose. This bleak judgement belongs to a ruined character; the play need not endorse it as its final truth.

5 'I will not yield'

Speaker/Scene: Macbeth, 5.8

Method: Defiant declarative

Analysis: When promised security collapses, he still resists humiliation. Courage remains visible, but it cannot undo the suffering he caused.

KEY CONNECTIONS

- Lady Macbeth's death exposes the destruction of the partnership that first enabled the crime.
- Macduff's birth reveals how equivocal words deceived Macbeth's hopes, not simply how a promise was broken.
- Malcolm's restored authority and the survivors' losses offer a perspective beyond Macbeth's despair.

DEVELOPMENT: MACBETH IN ACT 5

- Basic: Macbeth loses power and dies fighting.
- Further: brave resistance coexists with isolation and the failure of ambition.
- Advanced: his final courage can complicate an audience's judgement without turning tyranny into heroism or proving life meaningless.

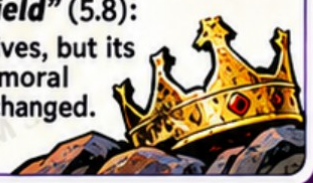

CONTEXT (RELEVANT)

The tragedy closes with political restoration, but lives lost cannot be restored. Distinguish the defeated ruler's account of existence from the wider judgement created by the drama.

PAIRED EVIDENCE LINK

"brave Macbeth" (1.2) ↔ "I will not yield" (5.8):
courage survives, but its political and moral purpose has changed.

RECALL TASKS

1 Why does the list of missing relationships matter more than the crown?

2 How can Macbeth remain courageous without being a good ruler?

WRITING TASK

How does Shakespeare present Macbeth's response to defeat in Act 5?

